MR. JOHN BAKER DEAD.

Aged and Highly Respected German Resident Passed Away Sunday.

In the death of Mr. John Baker, which occurred at 7 o'clock Sunday morning at his home in this city, No. 710 Dock street, the community mourns the loss of one of its oldest and most highly esteemed German residents. Mr. Baker had been in feeble health for several years but had been confined to his home only since last Friday a week ago. He was a man of fine personal character and was held in the highest esteem by every one who enjoyed his acquaintance.

Mr. Baker was born at Ruppertsburg, Germany, April 28th, 1834, and he had, therefore, just passed his 71st birthday. He had been a resident of Wilmington for 38 years and for a long time carried on his trade as a shoemaker in the basement of the Hancock building, on Princess street, next to the old real estate offices of J. G. Wright & Sons. Many of Wilmington's older citizens remember him for his skilled workmanship in making fine boots and shoes when such articles of necessity were more of home manufacture than now, in this age of machinery and invention. Mr. Baker had been the sexton of Saint Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church for 30 years and his last service at that post of duty was on Good Friday evening. He had sounded the first bell for church services but before the time for the second bell, he was forced, reluctantly, to give up and go home. He was held in the very highest esteem by the pastor, officers and members of that congregation.

Mr. Baker is survived by his aged wife and five daughters, who have the sincerest sympathy of the community in their bereavement. The daughters are Mrs. William Niestlie, Mrs. John M. Meyland, Mrs. Edward Wright, and Misses Annie and Josephine Baker, all of Wilmington.

The funeral will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the late residence; thence to St. Paul's Lutheran church and Oakdale cemetery.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

THE MAYOR SAYS FAREWELL

The Board of Aldermen of the present city administration held its "farewell" regular monthly meeting last night, but transacted no business of special importance beyond the regular routine. Mayor Springer at the conclusion of the meeting made a very graceful little talk thanking the retiring members of the Board for their kindness and courtesy during the past two years and wishing those who are continued in office godspeed in their efforts for the welfare of the city. The Board apparently, as far as possible, tried to clean up all unfinished business, leaving the way clear for the incoming administration, which will take charge of affairs to-morrow at noon. Of the present Board only Messrs. Karr, Moore, W. H. Yopp and W. E. Yopp continue with the new Board.

All members were present last night when Mayor Springer called the meeting to order at 8 o'clock. Standing committee reports were first called.

Application of W. J. Reaves, through his attorney, Hon. Jno. D. Bellamy, for refund of certain back taxes which it is claimed had been paid to C. P. Lockey, Esq., late city attorney under the Wright administration, was not granted upon recommendation of the Finance Committee.

Upon recommendation of Chairman Moore of the Police Committee, Substitutes W. R. Appleberry, A. D. Woolard, M. P. Newton and William Harris were elected to permanent positions on the police force.

Upon recommendation of Chairman Gafford, of the Ordinance Committee, a sanitary regulation extending the limits in which pig stys may be kept from Brunswick to Nixon street, was passed.

Under report of the special committee to which had been referred the matter of the Nurnberger market license, there was a long discussion. A. J. Marshall, Esq., appeared as attorney for Dr. A. H. Harriss, one of the parties claiming the license. The discussion was of no interest to the public, a motion finally prevailing that the license be transferred to Dr. A. H. Harriss from the Armour Packing Co. and that Mr. H. M. Bremer be refunded $50 which he had deposited. Upon a subsequent motion of Aldermen Tiencken, Mr. Bremer was allowed to continue business at the same stand upon payment of the usual license. That settlement of the affair appeared eminently satisfactory to all concerned.

Mr. Jere Hand notified the Board that he had suffered an injury by reason of a fall and would be unable to serve as registrar at the election today. Upon motion Mr. W. L. West was elected in his stead.

A communication was read from the Board of Audit and Finance informing the Aldermen of the completion of the contract with Mr. C. H. Dock, the exhaustion of the appropriation for permanent street improvement; also of non-concurrence in the license tax of $100 on trading stamp companies. Upon motion of Alderman Karr and second by Mr. Hashagen, the tax on trading stamp companies was made $50 per month. Messrs. Moore and Gafford were opposed to a $50 tax on the ground that it was excessive and theirs were the only two votes against the $50 per month tax.

The Board of Audit and Finance also referred to the Aldermen a bill of Attorneys E. K. Bryan, Herbert McClammy and Wm. J. Bellamy in, the sum of $300, for services in connection with the Monk rock quarry dispute last Summer. Upon motion of Mr. W. E. Yopp, seconded by Mr. Gafford, the bills were allowed.

Upon motion, tax of $104.32, erroneously paid by Blair & Healy through clerical error of the firm, was ordered refunded. Tax on $300 household and kitchen furniture of Mr. George Harriss listed doubly and paid twice, was also ordered refunded. Being charitable organizations and exempted from taxation by the Legislature amounts assessed against the Howard Relief Club, the Hibernian Benevolent Society, Cape Fear Lodge of Odd-Fellows, The Elks Co., Masonic Temple Corporation and the Y. M. C. A., were ordered stricken from the books.

The usual monthly reports were read. That of the City Clerk and Treasurer showed a balance April 1st, of $14,841.70, and receipts during the month running the total up to $21,818.45. The disbursements during April were $11,613.15, leaving a balance of $10,205.30 to the May account. Chief of Police Furlong reported 93 arrests during April, 46 of the defendants being white and 47 colored. Twenty were sent to the roads and workhouse for terms aggregating 650 days and nine were bound over to the Superior Court under bonds aggregating $450. The Superintendent of Health reported 45 births during the month, 19 colored and 26 white; 35 deaths, 15 white and 20 colored. Health officers made 4,183 inspections; did 173 fumigations; issued 183 lime and acid orders. Trash carts removed 1,132 loads of garbage; 1,752 premises were attended by scavengers. There were 18 cases of small-pox during the month and one of diphtheria. Fire Chief Charles Schnibben reported 12 alarms during the month and closed his report with a very neat acknowledgment to the Mayor and members of the Board for their courteous treatment and interest manifested during the past two years. The City Attorney reported $151.93 back taxes collected during April and $37.18 since May 1st.

The business having been completed, Mayor Springer said that the meeting would close the present administration; that he felt grateful to every member of the Board for the uniform kindness and courtesy which they had shown him, assuring them that the association of the past two years would ever be a bright spot in his memory and that he would cherish always the kindest feeling for each member of the Board. As a whole the proceedings of the Board had been harmonious and they had worked together for the good of the city and had always directed their efforts most cordially with those of the chief executive. "Those of us who now retire," he said, "go out with the consciousness that we have done the best we knew how."

To those who remain the Mayor wished the same good feeling and a crowning of their work with the same measure of success. Speaking personally, the Mayor said the knew he had made mistakes, all men are human, but that his errors were those of judgment, not of the heart. He bade each and every one of them godspeed in their future undertakings.

Streets and Wharves Report.

A feature of the meeting was an exhaustive report of the street work accomplished during the past two years, made through the Streets and Wharves Committe by Superintendent J. M. Woolard. The report is as follows:

To the Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen:

I give you the following report of permanent work done during past two years from June 1, 1903 to May 1, 1905:

We have built 47 blocks of streets, including intersections; three blocks of vitrified brick, two on Market street, one on Second street, 44 blocks of Macadam streets, at depth of from 12 to 14 inches, after being rolled with steam roller.

Front street has four blocks. Second street, seven blocks; Fourth street, three blocks; Fifth street, eight blocks; Sixth street, four blocks; Ninth street, three blocks; Walnut street, four blocks Grace street; two blocks; Chesnut, two blocks; Dock street, 7 blocks; Ann street, between Fourth and Sixth streets, curbed on a grade, now ready for the macadam to go down.

We have used and put to grade 43,410 feet of stone curbing. We have used for building and repair purposes 30,205 tons or rock for macadam streets, also large amount of underground drainage as follows:

On Market street from river to Fourth street, 1,570 feet 24 inch pipe, with man-hole laterals connected to each corner with 12-inch pipe from main to corner; 250 feet, 24-inch pipe on Brunswick street from river to Nutt street; also filled in and levelled up same; 300 feet, 24-inch pipe, on Dock street at Eleventh and Thirteenth streets, and 15-inch drain on Second street from Market to Princess streets, being 330 feet; 360 feet terra-cotta water pipe, 20-inch laid foot of Walnut street from Water or Nutt street to the river; 375 feet terra-cotta water pipe, 12-inch, on Walnut street from Fourth to Third streets; 100 feet, 15-inch pipe on Queen between Front and Surry streets; 250 feet, 12-inch pipe, at Front and Wright streets; 400 feet, 12-inch pipe, has been put down on Third street and Brunswick to Fourth streets; and 225 feet, 12-inch pipe from Fifth to Sixth streets, between Church and Castle streets and at several other minor places, besides over-hauling underground drains such as Jacob's Run, Horse Pond Sewer, Tan Yard Bottom sewers.

Thirty-six sand traps have been built in different places with cast-iron covers and man-holes to same at intersection of streets to connect underground drains.

Also grass lawn on Market street has been removed from between Front and Second streets to block between Third and Fourth streets and Belgian Blocks put in place of same between Front and Second streets.

We have built and put curbing around grass lawns on Fifth between Grace and Chestnut streets and between Chesnut and Princess and from Princess to Market streets, and have lawn built ready for curb on Fifth from Red Cross to Bladen.

Also have put out trees on Fifth from Hanover to Nixon streets and repaired trees from Campbell to Orange on same and Atlantic Coast Line has belgian blocks now on ground on Red Cross from Front to Nutt streets ready to be laid and all arrangements have been made with Atlantic Coast Line for furnishing rock and the macadam of Water street from Market House to foot of Ann street. Rebuilt Sixth street bridge, which was in a very dangerous condition. All this work has been done in eighteen months.

When we took charge of the street work, we found nothing on hand to begin work with. The quarry had been abandoned, machinery thrown aside and about worthless.

It required six months to re-open the rock quarry and repair the old machinery; therefore, the first ton of rock that was put on the streets was early in November, 1903.

Yours respectfully,
J. M. WOOLARD,
Superintendent of Streets.

Funeral of Mrs. Jordan.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth A. Jordan, who died Saturday at Delgado, was held Sunday afternoon. The service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Craig and the interment was in Bellevue cemetery. The pall-bearers were Messrs. R. N. Johnson, Gary Lee Moore, J. M. Wallace, Joe Rackley, O. T. Lassiter and N. T. Pittman. A special quartette composed of Mrs. F. A. Muse, Mrs. J. D. Edwards and Messrs. A. S. Holden and W. W. Hodges sang at both the house and grave.

April Postoffice Receipts.

Postal receipts at Wilmington during the month of April just ended were $7,722.90 an increase of 26 per cent. over April, 1904, and 56 per cent. over April 1903! The figures need no comment. Wilmington "do move."

ANOTHER BOND ISSUE

Commissioners Call An Election Upon Additional $50,000 Bond Issue for Roads

THE MEETING YESTERDAY

By authority of an act passed at the late session of the General Assembly, the Board of County Commissioners at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon, unanimously decided to call an election Thursday, June 1st, upon the question of a further bond issue of $50,000 "in order to continue and complete the repairing, construction and improving the public roads" of New Hanover county. The question has been mildly at issue since the recent passage of the law conferring upon the commissioners the power to call the election and, while no organized effort has been made to defeat the issue, it is quite likely the matter will be pretty liberally discussed from now until the date above mentioned. While all the proceeds of the issue of $50,000 in March, 1901, has not yet been exhausted, it will take some time to negotiate the bonds, even after the date of the election, and the commissioners thought best to act in time lest a suspension of the work for even a temporary period would disorganize the present efficient road-building force and cause a deterioration of the machinery and equipment.

The election on June 1st will be "in the same manner as for members of the General Assembly" and for the same an entirely new registration is called. The success or failure of the bond issue will be upon a majority of the qualified voters rather than a majority of the votes cast. Those in favor of the issue will vote a ticket upon which will be printed "For construction and completion and improvements of the public roads," while those opposed will vote a similar ticket with the word "For" changed to "Against." Thirty days notice of the election is given beginning to-day.

The bonds are to bear not exceeding five per cent. interest, payable semi-annually and are to run for a period not exceeding 25 years. The act, upon an issuance of the bonds, authorizes a special road tax of not exceeding 10 cents on the $100 valuation of property and not exceeding 30 cents on the poll.

The bond issue for 1901 has been supplemented from time to time by $15,000 from the General County Fund, making a total of $65,000, of which some $10,000 now remains. The amount of $55,000 has been expended in the purchase of the turnpike for $7,500; permanent road machinery, $5,600; steel bridge across Prince George's creek; mules, carts and other equipment to the extent of about $1,800. For this amount the county has to show a fine macadam road, nine miles to Castle Haynes; six miles completed on the Market street road and the fine turnpike to Wrightsville, which was made a free road and covered with a top dressing from Wilmington to the sound, a distance of nine miles. It is estimated that the average cost of these roads is $2,150 to $2,250 per mile. It is claimed, according to reports by the State Geologist, that the average cost over the State is from $2,800 to $3,000, the excellent Mecklenburg roads costing in the neighborhood of the latter figure with the material at hand. With this showing, the Commissioners are confident that the public will endorse their efforts for a continuance of the improvement.

Routine Proceedings.

The Board met at 3 o'clock, Chairman McEachern and all members present, viz: Messrs. H. L. Vollers, Wm. F. Robertson, M. W. Divine and W. F. Alexander.

Request of Mr. W. A. Lineker to define certain county roads running through his place on the Castle Haynes road, was referred to the Roads and Bridges Committee.

The Superintendent of Health reported that during March, 82 patients were treated in the office and 18 at their homes. Nineteen cases of small-pox and four of diphtheria were reported during the month. Three of the cases of diphtheria were outside the city. No serious sickness occurred in any of the county institutions.

The Register of Deeds reported $23.65 paid into the treasury as revenue from marriage licenses during the month. The clerk of the Superior Court reported $85.65 in fines, forfeitures, etc.

The resignation of Mr. J. A. Perry as road superintendent was received and referred to the Road Committee. Mr. Perry said that he could get more money elsewhere, the present salary being only $60. The resignation is to take effect June 1st.

Report of Bellamy & Bellamy, attorneys, as to collection of back taxes, was referred to the Finance Committee. The net collections for the month were $140.42. On motion of Mr. Vollers the tax books of 1904 were turned over to the attorneys for collection with instruction to add 10 per cent. costs to all collections in the future.

Applications of D. B. Futrell to retail liquor in Moore's new hotel, and the Ocean View Company to retail at The Casino, both on Wrightsville Beach, were granted.

On motion of Commissioner Divine, the Road Committee was authorized to contract for road material in such quantities and from such quarries as they may see fit and proper. The Chairman has for several weeks had up the question of buying a part of the road material outside the city, believing that the roads could be more economically built with that arrangement. The committee now has up the question of freight rates and quotations from a number of quarries and will act under the resolution above.

County Sanitary Board.

In the midst of the meeting of the Commissioners a recess was taken and according to law the County Sanitary Board met at 3:40 o'clock; present, all members of the Board of County Commissioners and Drs. E. J. Wood and D. W. Bulluck. The special business was the election of a superintendent of health. Nominations being declared in order, Dr. Wood nominated Dr. W. D. McMillan and he was unanimously elected. The salary of the office was continued at $1,200 per year.

On motion of Dr. Wood and seconded by Dr. Bulluck, it was ordered that all persons committed to the county institutions shall, upon entering said county institutions be required to take a bath and at the discretion of the keeper may be required to put on clean clothing furnished by the county, unless furnished by the person himself.

MAY DAY FESTIVAL.

Delightful Affair Yesterday Evening Baby Show Prizes.

The May Day Festival on the lawn of the Wilmington High School from 4 to 7 o'clock yesterday evening under the auspices of the North Carolina Sorosis was one of the most charming affairs witnessed in a long time in this city. The features of the occasion were a baby show and a May pole party, both of which were beautiful indeed. The attendance was very large, so that the event was a magnificent success both financially and artistically. Music was furnished by Hollowbush's Orchestra and everything else that could contribute to the brilliancy of the event was provided.

There were thirty-six entries for the baby show and the difficulties of the situation at once appealed to the judges, Mrs. Hugh MacRae, Mrs. John D. Bellamy and Mr. John J. Blair, for every one of the tots was as pretty as pretty could be. Physical beauty as well as beauty of feature was taken into account and, therefore, three prizes were offered. The first of two prizes for beauty of feature—a pretty gold ring— was awarded to little Miss Dorothy Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis, who won first prize at a recent show in Saint James' parish. house, and another first prize in the same class—a neat gold pin—was won by little Miss Susan Divine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Divine. For physical beauty, the silver pin, was awarded to little Miss Janie Buchanan Russell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Russell.

Miss Mary Worth, the attractive young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Worth, was chosen as Queen of May Day and she was crowned with beautiful ceremony. The May pole dance followed to the accompaniment of Hollowbush's Orchestra and the affair was enjoyed no more by the little folks who joined merrily in the frivolity than it was by the older persons who admiringly looked on.

Refreshments were served by the ladies during the afternoon and everybody was delighted with the affair. The committee from Sorosis in charge of the festival was composed of Miss Wiswell, Mrs. E. K. Bryan, Miss Sue Hall, Mrs. R. W. Price and Miss Sanders and to them is due great credit for the magnificent success of the event.

STRAWBERRY MOVEMENT

No complete record of the strawberry shipments from the belt could be obtained yesterday but it is known the movement was immense consisting perhaps of over 250 cars. Passengers on the late train from Chadbourn last night said that there were at least 25,000 crates around the depot there awaiting removal in addition to the thousands of crates that had already gone forward during the day. An extra one hundred refrigerator cars were expected there before daylight this morning. The bank at Chadbourn is keeping open day and night and over a million dollars has already been handled there since the season opened. Quotations from the Northern markets were conflicting last night but it is believed with the splendid distribution made possible by the presence of Business Agent Bauman, of the Truckers' Association at South Rocky Mount, that fair prices can be upheld until the bulk of the crop is moved.

Through Rocky Mount Sunday.

The movement through Rock Mount Sunday consisted of 167 solid cars and 2,354 crates by express. The distribution of Sunday's shipments was as follows:

New York	38
Boston	22
Philadelphia	17
Pittsburg, Pa.	14
Newark, N. J.	10
Buffalo, N. Y.	10
Providence, R. I.	6
Elmira	5

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Tuesday Morning, May 2.

THE NORTHERN PRESS ON GEN. LEE.

The death of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee on Friday morning at Washington causes universal regret in the North and the press does him great honor. The New York Times says:

"There is no man in the South, and no man in the United States, who contributed more than Fitzhugh Lee to form, after the division of the Civil War, 'a more perfect union.' And this not by any overt proceedings of his own in that direction, but by the mere force of his generous nature. It is twenty years since the attention of the hundrsds of thousands of New Yorkers who turned out to witness the funeral procession of Gen. Grant was attracted by the only mounted man in that impressive array who was in civilian's dress. Inquiring, they learned that the horseman thus made conspicuous was Fitzhugh Lee, the Governor of Virginia. His particiipation would have been more in evidence as a sign of reunion if he had worn a Confederate uniform. But for this the time was not yet ripe.

"The same generosity and good feeling that this incident denoted were the qualities which have endeared Fitzhugh Lee to his countrymen, including those who, a little more than forty years ago, he would have denied to be his countrymen. When, at the outbreak of the Spanish war, President McKinley, with that nice tact which so distinguished him, selected the nephew of Robert E. Lee and commander of the cavalry of the Army of Northern Virginia for a Brigadier's commission, the selection was applauded as the final proof of complete reunion. Even so, the comment perhaps apocryphally ascribed to an unreconstructed Virginian is worth repeating: 'Do you know, Sah, that they have had the impudence to offer Fitz Lee a commission as Brigadier in their Yankee Ahmy when he was a Majah General in ouah ahmy?'

"It remains true that Fitzhugh Lee was one of the most favorable exemplications of that 'Southern chivalry' which has been so unduly discredited by reason of the spurious imitations of it. With him it was the genuine article. His hastening to associate himself and the great State of which he was Governor with the funeral of Grant was one illustration of it. Another was his application to Reynolds, the 'Federal' General who fell on the first day of Gettysburg, of the saying: 'No man fell that day more gloriously than he, though many men fell that day, and there was much glory.'"

YERKES UNDER FIRE.

"There is a considerable amount of talk here about the recent revenue episodes that have taken place in North Carolina and many Republicans of prominence are doing some talking that man mean much before it is all over. This talk is not confined to subordinate department men, but several United States Senators are known to be very much disturbed over the unsavory record of the office of the Commissioner of Internal Revenue and these Senators are men who stand high in the counsels of the party in power and have influence with the President. A very prominent Republican, who holds a position of great influence under the administration, in speaking of the matter to-day said: 'It has just come to this, that the charge that the Democrats have been making all along as to the Internal Revenue Bureau's being nothing but a political machine, is proven true by the present notorious conduct of Commissioner Yerkes. He has possibly gone farther than any of his predecessors toward establishing all over the South, in every State, a political machine of revenue men; and President Roosevelt can rest assured that as long as he keeps such a man at the head of this bureau he does not stand a ghost of a show of building up a respectable Republican party in the South.'"

This Yerkes be the man who stood up at the banquet of the North State Club in Greensboro a few months ago, and deprecatingly and pityingly declared that a lot of "good" Southern men actually can't see their way to vote anything but the Democratic ticket. His speech was offensive in the extreme but Yerkes' sort generally speaks that way.

RECORDERS' COURTS KNOCKED OUT.

"People in Raleigh are very In Sunday's Charlotte Obmuch disturbed over the news from Asheville that Judge Neal has decided that the 'police justice' section of the new charter of the city is unconstitutional. The new Raleigh charter has a very similar clause and the Democratic primary has just named Thos. Badger for the office. The unconstitutionality is based on the fact that the justice is given jurisdiction over all misdemeanor cases."

It appears that the people who pushed bills through the General Assembly providing for Recorders' Courts giving them jurisdiction in cases not within the jurisdiction of magistrates, failed to read the decision of the Supreme Court knocking out the Criminal Courts of New Hanover and other counties. In short that decision held that the Legislature can establish no court except those provided for in the Constitution of North Carolina. There was no constitutional provision for a criminal court and none for a recorder's court. A recorder can have no greater jurisdiction than that of a magistrate.

We doubt whether Judge Neal's decision is based on the grounds given in the Raleigh correspondence. It no doubt goes deeper than that.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—A woman at San Jose, Cal., went crazy after visiting a clairvoyant. Ordinarily people go crazy before they visit clairvoyants.—New York American.

—Already people are predicting that Senator Newland's minority report on the railroad rate problem will be a real nice piece of fancy work.—Washington Times.

—Germany has a report that $268,000,000 has been stolen from the United States Treasury by burglars. The burglar part of the report is erroneous.—Washington Post.

—Bowen affirms and Lommis denies. It will be a good riddance if President Roosevelt shall find it in his strenuous mind to shake both of those functionaries—Philadelphia Record.

—Finance is now this country's only rival in silk manufacture. We make over 70 per cent. of the silk we consume, whereas in 1860 we imported all but 13 per cent. of our silk.—Philadelphia Press.

—"Plain living and high thinking" has been adopted as the motto of the National Council of Women. The Trusts are making the "plain living" part of the motto imperative.—New York American.

—The bank clerk with a mania for playing the races is bad enough, but not so bad as the higher official who is convinced that he has a genius for speculative finance.—Washington Star.

—Togo finds it much cheaper to go out and capture a collier than order the stuff from the retail dealers at $6.75 a ton—Montreal Star.

—Some people talk as if the framers of the Constitution framed it for the sole protection of the railroads which were to come in the future and were undreamed of when the framing was done.—Chicago Record Herald.

—If the women begin to wear hoop-skirts again they will be another reason to widen the streets.—Baltimore Sun.

—A Washington dispatch says that orders have been issued by the Land Office setting aside 1,605,700 acres of land in Colorado as a forest reserve. This land includes the country where President Roosevelt is now hunting and extends southwest, following the ranges and divide nearly to Leadville. It might not be a bad idea to get the President to do a little hunting in the South Appalachian region.—Charlotte Observer.

—The U. S. Grand Post, G. A. R., and the local Confederate veterans are to march together in New York on Memorial Day, and the oration at Grant's tomb is to be delivered by Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky. Noting this face The Evening Sun says: "It will be the most interesting and significant celebration of the anniversary ever held in this town. The North is now as proud of the gallantry of the men who fought for the Lost Cause as it is of those who commanded her own soldiers." That is a great deal said in little space.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—In so far as relates to the outlay of $200,000,000 on Philippine account, there is no probability that "the game" will be "worth the candle." That our wild plunge into the far east was a gigantic mistake was realized almost as soon as it became an accomplished fact. But both of the two great parties, and, indeed, the people, irrespective of party, were responsible for the war with Spain, and participated in the conduct of that war and in the framing and ratification of the treaty that loaded the United States with the Philippine handicap. And no statesmen or politician has pointed out an honorable way of relief from that burden.—Washington Post.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Where did he get all his money? I thought he had some insignificant position." "Oh, my no! He was a Pullman porter." — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—A Young Barbarian.—Fond Mother—Tommy, darling, this is your birthday. What would you like best?" "I think I should enjoy seeing the baby spanked.—Pick-Me-Up.

——From what district is Representative Seaupe?" "Oh, he's a congressman-at-large." He is, eh? Well, if there's many more investigations he'll be lucky to remain that way!"—Cleveland Leader.

—Yest—"I understand your wife is an indefatigable worker?" Crimsonbeak—"She's all that. Why, after she sings the baby to sleep, by Jove! she comes and talks me to sleep!"—Yonkers Statesman.

—Friend—"How do you suppose your baby caught the whooping cough? He hasn't been near any other children." Mother—"He probably inherited it from me; I had it when I was just his age."—Detroit Free Press.

—Do you think that some of the modern novels cause people to adopt criminal careers?" "No," answered Miss Cayenne. "They are pretty bad, but not had enough to temtp anybody to desperation."—Washington Star.

—Mabel—"Is working in a postoffice a trying position?" Clara—"It's perfectly awful! Sometimes we have to hurry so that I can't take time to guess who writes half of the letters to people I know."—Columbus Dispatch.

—"Do you believe that a public office is a public trust?" "I do,' answered the South American president. "And I also believe that a man who assumes so much responsibility should be liberally compensated."—Washington Star.

—Mrs. Fleyme—"Oh, Mr. Nocoyne, how lovely of you to bring me those beautiful roses! How sweet they are —and how fresh- I do believe there is a little dew on them yet" Mr. Nocoyne — "W-w-ell, yes—there is, about 50 cents, I think; but I'll pay it to-morrow."

—"I'm going to endow one of the universities," said the millionaire, "going to establish a chair." "Chair of what?" asked his friend. "Well, I don't know what you'd call it for short, but it's a chair that's badly needed—a chair to teach graduates how to get a job."—Brooklyn Life.

—"Say, Mr. Jones, can you swim?" "Now, Johnnie, you go are out of here. You shouldn't ask Mr. Jones such a question." "Oh, I don't mind," said Jones, evidently trying to make a favorable impression upon the youngster. "Certainly I can swim; but what made you ask me that question. "Well," replied Johnnie as he backed to the door, "I heard sis tell ma that she was going to throw you overboard."—Albany Journal.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, May 1.—After a very active and excited early session, the cotton market sold down but held a good part of its early gain. The opening was strong at an advance of 6 to 15 points on much higher cables than expected, active covering and further bull support by the Wall street operator who has recently turned from the bear to the bull side of the market and is said to be predicting still higher prices. Soon after the opening the market increased its gains with May selling at 7.62, July at 7.56, and October at 7.73, but this level being over half a cent up from the low point of last week attracted heavy offerings for long account as well as a little selling on the a reaction theory and quotations worked off again to about the opening figures. Around 7.49 for July, support a gain became evident in the late trading, covering by early sellers caused a slight rally and the market at the close was steady at a net advance of 7 to 13 points, with July quoted at 7.53. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. The weather South was favorable on the average but Southern spot markets were reported higher and receipts seemed to be running a little smaller.

Saved by Dynamite.

Sometimes, a flaming city is saved by dynamiting a space that the fire can't cross. Sometimes, a cough hangs on so long, you feel as if nothing but dynamite would cure it. Z. T. Gray, of Calhoun, Ga., writes: "My wife had a very aggragated cough, which kept her awake nights. Two physicians could not help her; so she took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds, which eased her cough, gave her sleep, and finally cured her." Strictly scientific cure for bronchitis and La Grippe. At R. R. Bellamy's drug store, price 50c. and $1.00; guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Terriffic Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death, "as a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt a like new man, and to-day I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at R. R. Bellamy's drug store; price, 50c.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up toward the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed theonduw ... poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c. at R. R. Bellamy's drug store.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—The Cooleemee correspondent of the Salisbury Post writes as follows on Saturday: The largest fish ever caught at this place was caught last night with a net by O. J. Ludwick and J. H. Russell. It was a carp and tipped the scales at the 30 pound notch.

—A dispatch from Newbern says: If the frost injured the pea crop, there were no signs of it in the shipment made on the steamer Neuse Saturday evening. The first load sent out from this port numbered about 1,000 baskets and for the initial shipment this amount is considered extraordinarily good.

—Charlotte Observer: Mr. S. S. McNinch, who is to be the next mayor of Charlotte, is credited with a desire to put his administration upon a business instead of a factional basis. We hope he will succeed in doing so. The time has come when some attention should be paid to the upbuilding of Charlotte.

—Salisbury Post: May 13th—decoration day—will be celebrated on a big sale here. The colored citizens of Salisbury have the matter well in hand and Dr. John C. Dancy, Recorder of Deeds of the District of Columbia, will deliver the memorial address. Excursions will be run to Salisbury from Charlotte, Greensooro, Norwood, Winston-Salem, Statesville and Chester, S. C.

—Charlotte Chronicle: Along the Southern Railroad from Charlotte to Greensboro, corn is up. From Greensboro to Danville, the only sign of agriculture is an occasional bed of tobacco plants covered with cheese cloth. From Danville to Richmond the farmers have just now begun breaking ground for corn planting. This shows the progress of spring from the South to the North.

—John Gibson, colored, was shot and seriously wounded at Winston-Salem Saturday night at 11:30 o'clock by Jim Belk, another negro at a festival near Belo's pond. The shooting came as the result of a dispute over the receipts at the door. Words passed, and Belk drew his gun and fired. The ball took effect in Gibson's chest, triking a rib and ranging around under the arm. Belk made his escape.

—A disatpch from Monroe says: Papers were issued this morning charging Dr. W. A. Deese, of Marshville, with an assault with criminal intent on Mrs. Bertha Gaddy. The alleged crime is said to have been committed in March. Dr. Deese is one of the most prominent physicians of the county and stands well, both as a physician and as a citizen. The warrant charging the criminal act was issued today and will be served at the earliest possible moment. It is learned here that the law firm of Adams, Jerome & Armfield has been retained by Mrs. Gaddy to prosecute the case.

—A dispatch from Dallas, Texas says: Mrs. Alice Webb Duke, wife of Brodie L. Duke, of North Carolina, reached Dallas to-day to cousult with Dallas bankers for an adjustment of financial troubles in which she became involved over Nacogdoches tobacco enterprises in 1904 as a member of the Taylor-Webb syndicate. Dallas bankers advanced considerable money at the time and the obligations are still unpaid, but are reported to be in a fair way of adjustment. Mrs. Duke and her legal adviser, Charles Berry, spent much of the afternoon at the Texas National Bank, in conference with Vice President J. W. Blake. Mrs. Duke this evening stated that her Texas affair were in a very satisfactory condition, and that she expeteed to remain in the State for a considerable time.

The Charlotte Chronicle of Saturday says: Rev. William P. Fife, who is making his headquarters in Kansas City, arrived in the city this morning from Atlanta, where he had been on business for several days, and will make a short visit in Charlotte. Mr. Fife is president of the Great Western Oil Refining and Pipe Line Company, with headquarters in Kansas City. The vice-president is ex-Governor Burke, of North Dakota, who has recently moved to Kansas City. In looking around for an attorney, Mr. Fife selected a distinguished North Carolinian in the person of ex-Judge H. G. Ewart, of Hendersonville, who is general counsel and also a director of the company. "Why did you select the name Great Western for your new corporation?" asked a Chronicle man. "Because of the Great Western gold mine," replied Mr. Fife, who proceeded to tell of the great riches being developed in the California mine. A large number of North Carolina people bought shares of stock in the Great Western mine, and they will learn with pleasure of the success of the enterprise. Mr. Fife carries in his pocket a beautiful nugget of pure gold taken from the mine.

—Asheville correspondence Charlotte Observer: The activity of the raiding force under Collector Harkins, in this internal revenue district, is only rivalled by the activity of the "moonshiners," and the two factions are continually playing the games of "hide and go seek" and "catch-as-catch-can." The "revenuers," brave and shrewd, with the strong arm of the law as a shield and perfectly at home in the mountain fastnesses, have an equal advantage with the makers of blockade liquor and as a result of their knowledge and fearlessness succeed in locating capturing and destroying the stuff as rapidly as it is made. The repeated destruction of their stills and the facing of stern judges of the United States Court fail to discourage the "moonshiners," however, and rather than a decrease in the operation of illicit distilleries and the making of blockade liquor, revenue officers are authority for the statement that more and more is made every year. In March it was said that more raids had been made and more blockade liquor captured and destroyed in this section than in any month for years past. However this may be, the work of the "revenuers" during April has equaled that of March and a batch of recent seizures has been reported that reaches the limit. In all, 20 illicit distilleries were captured and destroyed, together with 12,800 ballons of beer and a quantity of low wine.

—At Winston Salem Saturday night J. W. Hammond, a white man, shot and mortally wounded his wife, and she died at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. The husband is in jail. For some months Hammond and his wife had not lived together, and it is said he approached her Saturday night to effect a reconciliation. Mrs. Hammond was going to the home of Mrs. Zimmerman, on Fifth street, when she was accosted by Hammond, who, after a few words, threatened to shoot her. Several men, who were standing near, saw a revolver in Hammond's hand and rushed to the woman's assistance. Before they could overpower him, he had fired at the woman the ball taking effect just below the right hip. The wounded woman was at once taken to the hospital and given medical attention. The officers arrested Hammond shortly after the shooting. He offered no resistance. A short time ago Hammond was tried before Magistrate Bessent on two warrants sworn out by his wife, one a peace warrant and the other for an assault with a deadly weapon. On the latter charge Hammond was bound over to the Superior Court in a bond of $50, which was furnished by parties in Stokes county. The peace warrant was dismissed. He accuses the wife of infidelity, and gives this as his reason for shooting her.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS.

because it's for One Thing Only, and Wilmington is Learning This.

Here is evidence to prove it.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailer, of Eight South Front St., residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be effective remedy. She sufferel with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We though it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all puffde up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them, she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained, we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

TO KILL THE DANDRUFF GERM.

Is the Only Possible Way of Having An Effective Cure.

If you see a woman or a man with luxuriant glossy hair, you may be sure neither has dandruff to amount to anything. In nearly every case where women and men have thin brittle hair, they owe it to dandruff. There are hundreds of preparations that "claim" to cure dandruff, but not one but Newbro's Herpicide tells you that dandruff is the result of a germ burrowing into the scalp, and that permanent cure of dandruff and its consequent falling and baldness, can only be had by killing the germ; and there is no other preparation that will destroy that germ but Newbro's Herpicide. "Destroy the cause, and you remove the effect." Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit Mich.

GRAVE OUTLOOK AT CHICAGO

Strike Breakers Armed by Employers and Strikers Also Propose to Carry Guns—Bloodshed is Incretable.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Chicago, May 1.—Conditions in the Teamsters strike were worse to-day than at any preceeding time. The strikers were in uglier mood, the rioting was more open and vicious and the attacks on non-union men were frequent and daring than at any time since the beginning of the strike. The chief cause for the increased belligerency on the part of the strikers and their friends is the fact that the Employers Teaming Association to-day brought 1,500 men into Chicago to take the places of strikers and 500 more are said to be now on the way and will arrive within twelve hours. These men will receive the full pay of union men and it has been guaranteed to the that their positions will be permanent. Among the strike breakers are 200 farmer boys.

To-morrow whenever a wagon of the Employers Teaming Association goes through the streets a riffle will be carried on each wagon in open view. During the last week there has been much complaint on the part of the strike sympathizers of the readiness with which non-union men particularly negroes, have used revolvers.

A number of strike breakers have been arrested on a charge of carrying concealed weapons and to-day the attorneys for the Employers' Teaming Association called on Chief of Police O'Neill and asked if their men had not the right to carry weapons, provided they were held in weapon view. Chief of Police O'Neill replied that there was on law against in the arrangements were promptly made by the employers to place rifles on every one of their wagons.

Over 1,000 rifles were purchased today, and during the latter part of the afternoon a number of wagons went through the streets with a rifle lying across the knees of the driver and his assistant. When Mayor Dunne was informed of the fact that rifles would be carried by non-union men he was visibly disturbed and he declared that the police would not be permitted to authorize the carrying of arms and any one whether in the employment of the Employers Teaming Association of affiliated with the strikers.

President Shea of the Teamsters Union to-night said that if the employers Teaming Association armed its drivers with rifles, he woul do the same with the union drivers.

REIGN OF TERROR OVER IN RUSSIA

100 KILLED OR WOUNDED

Troops Uncontrollable and Fired on Workmen, Who Responded With Fire Arms and Bombs—Women and Children Killed.

By wire to The Morning Star.

Warsaw, May 1.—Nearly one hundrede persons were killed or wounded in disturbances in various quarters of Warsaw to-day. The troops apparently were uncontrollable and violated all orders to act with medoration. They fired into crowds of demonstrators, and the workmen in retaliation resorted to the use of fire arms and bombs. Many women and children are among the dead and dying. What approaches a reign of terror exists to-night; the city presents a most gloomy aspect and the temper of the entire community augurs ill.

May day opened with every prospect that the recent gloomy forebodings would find contradiction in a peaceful ending. Glorious weather ushered in the beginning of the celebrations and all factories, shops and offices of every descriptions were closed. The streets were crowded from early in the morning with gaily dressed people and troops. Children everywhere enjoyed themselves in the warm sunshine. The presence of numerous patrols of Cossack cavalry and infantry were the only remainder of lurking danger.

No untoward incident was reported until afternoon. The first disturbances occurred between 1 and 2 o'clock P. M., when a procession of several thousand workmen carrying red flags marched along Zelaza street. The demonstration was quite orderly and proceeded without molestation for some distance. Suddenly several squadrons of Uhlans appeared, but without interferring with the procession and took up a position along the sidewalks while the workmen passed through the lines. Then a company of infantry approached from the front, and immediately the cavalry charged into the procession driving it with the flat of their swords into a disorganized mass. When the cavalry withdrew the infantry fired a volley, whereupon the demonstrators turned and fled. The infantry continued to discharge volleys into the retreating, shrieking multitude. Thirty-one persons were killed and many wounded, fifteen will die. The shooting is described as having been quite unprovoked. It has aroused the most intense indignation among all classes in Warsaw. Many of those who were killed or wounded were shot in the back, showing that they were running away when they were struck.

Another terrible scene was enacted at 5 o'clock P. M. at the corner of Zlota and Sosnore streets, when workmen fired from behind a wall at a patrol, which immediately opened fire on the passing crowds, killing or wounding twenty persons.

The first bomb throwing occurred at 9:35 o'clock to-night when a bomb was thrown into a Cossack patrol near the Vienna station. Three Cossacks and one policeman were killed and two women who were leaving the station at the time were severely wounded by the explosion of the bomb. Cossacks and infantry fired a number of volleys, and it is reported that many persons were killed or wounded. Troops surrouned the whole neighborhood. It has been impossible up to the present time to secure accurate information as to the casualties in this affair.

At 10:45 o'clock P. M., disturbances broke out at the Zombkowska gate of the suburb of Praga, across the Vistula river. A great crowd had assembled there, threatening the troops, when Hussars fired upon the crowd and killed four and wounded many others.

It was reported by telephone from Lodz this afternoon that a crowd there had stoned a military patrol, whereupon the soldiers fired and killed two men and wounded a boy.

Later, a similar scene occurred in Baluki square in Lodz when two persons were killed. In Lodz also at 9 o'clock to-night a bomb was thrown at a patrol, but it was not effective. The patrol fired into the crowd and killed three and wounded two persons.

A student who was disturbing proclamations in Wola, a suburbs of Warsaw to-night, was killed by a patrol.

In Nawrot street, Warsaw, to-night, a patrol killed a woman. To-day's bloodshed is likely to very seriously affect the situation and may cause a general strike. The temper of the people is at white heat, and there is much apprehension regarding the possible events of May 5th, the 114th anniversary of the proclamation of the Polish constitution, when disturbances and demonstrations a wlaoysreccuETA and demonstrations always occur. To-night there is every indication of trouble. All the ground that had been gained since the disturbances of last January has now been lost. Only passenger trains are leaving Warsaw to-nigh and these are crowded with refugees and manned by officials of the engineering departments, all the engine drivers, firemen and porters have quit work.

Bomb Explosion in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, May 1.—A bomb exploded early this morning in an apartment house room occupied by two men. Both of them were injured, one seriously. The other man was only slightly hurt. It is believed the men were preparing the bomb for use when it exploded. The evening papers do not mention the affair and the police are trying to keep it secret.

THE RUSSIAN FLEET.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Saigon, French Cochin-China, May 1.—The Russian squadron is lying off Port Dayet forty miles north of Kamranh Bay and in Biuhkang Bay (near Kamranh Bay) outside of territorial waters. Russian, German and British transports are off Cape St. James, near Saigon, and in the Saigon river. The French naval division has been mobilized to preserve neutrality in French waters.

Tokio, May 1.—It is believed that Admiral Rojestvensky continues to use the ports of Indo-China for the purpose of obtaining coal and other supplies and for maintaining communication with St. Petersburg and the Japanese press is again questioning the faith of the recent assurance of France.

The government here is silent but it is believed the ministers are preparing to renew the neutrality question with France.

Manager Hugh Jennings, of the Baltimore baseball club, learned Saturday that the blow received on the left arm at Cumberland a week ago, fractured the arm. The fact was disclosed by an X-ray photograp tak n at the John's Hopkins hospital.

NAN PATTERSON'S FATE WILL SOON BE DECIDED

Lawyer Levy Yesterday Made Strong Five Hours Speech in Defence of Chorus Girl—Suicide Was His Theory.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, May 1.—"This case is one of deliberate murder or suicide. There can be no manslaughter about it. There should be no compromise verdict. She is either guilty of murder in the first degree or not at all." With these words Abram Levy, counsel for Nan Patterson brought to a close this afternoon his five-hour argument in defense of the former chorus girl charged with the murder of "Caesar" Young.

During the long argument Miss Patterson faced the jury unflinchingly. The court room was crowded, most of the attendants being women who struggled to get a look at the defendant. At one time during the afternoon the judge was compelled to stop Mr. Levy while court officers expelled from the room some women who persisted in discussing the case in audible tones to the annoyance of all present.

Mr. Levy reviewed all the testimony in detail and declared not a word had been introduced which showed any purpose on the part of Miss Patterson or her brother-in-law or sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Smith, to threaten the life of "Caesar" Young. The suicide theory was strictly emphasized by Mr. Levy, who contended that the powder stains on Young's fingers proved that he had shot himself. Mr. Levy scouted the idea that a girl would be able to make such an assault on a trained athlete like Young. He also ridiculed the idea that Miss Patterson should have chosen a crowded public street as a place for murder when she had so many opportunities to attack Young where there would have been little danger of detection.

When the trial was resumed to-day Mr. Levy formally announced that the defence would rest on the State's case, and then begun his closing argument for the prisoner. Mr. Levy accused the prosecuting attorney of unfair tactics, saying he had attempted to create the impression that the pawn tickets were dated June 3 when they really bore the date of October. Mr. Levy declared that the prosecution had failed to prove that J. Morgan Smith bought the pistol, and also had failed to prove a motive for the deed.

Mr. Levy argued that Nan Patterson was a victim of her own weaknesses and the blandishments of "Caesar" Young. It was admitted she was the mistress of Young, he said, but before that she had been true to her husband and was as loyal to Young as if she truly had been his wife. Young was the master; she the weakling. He asked the jury to read the letters from Young to Miss Patterson and to determine whether they were written to a woman whom the writer wished to get away from.

"These letters ere signed 'All Love,'" said he, "and in them we have a voice from the dead indicating that this married man was pursuing this girl instead of her pursuing him. If Young did not shoot himself, then how did the black spot like powder marks get on a finger of his right hand?" said Mr. Levy. "There were no powder marks found on her hand, and this indicates that Young shot himself. There is no woman absolutely depraved. There is some good in a woman even if she is an unfortunate victim, so you will find that this defendant did not want or wish to break up Mrs. Young's home. The prosecution has failed to prove that the defendant followed Young from place to place, but the facts indicate that he was infatuated with her and pursued her."

After reviewing the examination of Julia Smith by Mr. Rand, and declaring that no frail, weak woman could withstand such an onslaught, Mr. Levy discussed the alleged purchase of the revolver by J. Morgan Smith. He said that if that had been proved the case would have been greatly changed, but declared that the failure of Pawnbroker Stern to identify Smith brought that phase of the case to an end. Mr. Levy said he was glad the pawn-tickets were introduced in evidence as they showed that Smith was in the habit of pawning things at Stern's and consequently could readily have been identified by Mr. Stern if he were the purchaser of the revolver.

Mr. Levy ridiculed the contention of the district attorney that Young was marked for slaughter from May 3. He said if the defendant were a mercenary woman she would not think of cutting off the source of her money. "If the defendant shot Young, said Mr. Levy, "she would have had to stand up in front to have done it. Think of Young, an athlete, permitting her to do anything like that. If it was impossible for him to have inflicted the wound upon himself it was equally for her to have shot him. While it is true that he made arrangements for the trip to Europe and also bought the hat, the suicide idea may have been an impulse or he may have shot himself in changing the pistol from one pocket to the other. But the other side will say that after the shooting the pistol was found in his right hand coat pocket? Have there not been cases of men shot in the head walking to the hospital?

"I say, gentlemen, that in my judgment this case is one of deliberate murder or suicide. There can be no manslaughter about it. There should be no compromise verdict. She is either guilty of murder in the first degree or not at all. I have made no attempt to appeal to your emotions or to touch your sympathy. It is an appeal for right and justice. I am not convinced that the prosecution has proved their case beyond a reasonable doubt."

It was 6 o'clock when Mr. Levy, who had spoken in all over five hours, concluded his address. During his long talk Nan kept her eyes fixed on the jury watching the effect of Mr. Levy's argument which may decide her fate. When adjournment was announced Miss Patterson walked back to the prison with a steady step. She made no comment on the day's proceedings.

Assistant District Attorney Rand will make his closing argument to-morrow. The district attorney's office is making a thorough investigation of a story as to the suppression of certain evidence in the case. A number of witnesses have been subpoened and affidavits will be taken from them at the conclusion of the trial.

OBSEQUIES OF GENERAL LEE

IMPOSING MILITARY ESCORT

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Washington, May 1.—An affectionate and imposing tribute was paid to-day to all that is mortal of Brigadier General Fitzhugh Lee, U. S. A., retired. Formal funeral services over the remains will be held in Richmond, Va., next Thursday. It was found necessary to delay them until that time, in order that the General's son, Lieutenant George Mason Lee, of the Seventh United States cavalry, who was in San Franscisco with his regiment en route to the Philippines, might be in attendance. Brief services were held to-day, however, at the Church of the Epiphany, on G street, many of the personal and official friends embracing the opportunity thus afforded to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of the distinguished dead.

Prior to the brief services to-day, the remains of General Lee which had been lying in their casket in the Sunday School chapel of Epiphany church since their removal from Providence Hospital, were conveyed to the auditorium of the church. Throughout last night and to-day, they were surrounded by a guard of honor consisting of members of the Local Camp of Confederate veterans.

The church services were conducted by the rector of Epiphany church, Rev. Randolph H. McKim, D. D., who is chaplain of the Washington camp of Confederate veterans. He was an officer in General Lee's old command in the Civil War and the two were life long friends. The services were very simple, being in accordance with the burial service prescribed by the ritual of the Episcopal church. No funeral was pronounced.

The church was thronged with friends and acquaintances of General Lee and his family. Seats were reserved for the members of the Lee family and other relatives and for specially invited officials and friends both from Washington and from Virginia. The casket containing the remains was covered with floral offerings which had been received from individuals and organizations with which General Lee was identified. Among them was a handsome wreath sent by the President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

The details of the arrangement of the services and escort of the body were completed by Major General Gillespie, Brigadier General Burton, Major Kean and Captain Michie, U. S. A.

While the church services were in progress the military and civic pageant which was to escort the remains to the Pennsylvania railroad station for transportation to Richmond was formed on G. street near the church under command of Major Edward Burr, of the corps of engineers, U. S. A. The following named honorary pall-bearers were designated:

The Secretary of War, the Assistant Secretary of War, Major General George L. Gillespie, Brigadier General John F. Weston, Brigadier General George B. Davis, Brigadier General George H. Burton, Brigadier General Andrew S. Burt, Brigadier General Edward Hays, Brigadier General Tully McCrea, Colonel Clarence R. Edwards, Colonel George E. Pond, Major Jefferson R. Kean, Major Chauncey B. Baker, Captain Robert E. L. Michie, Mr. Leigh Robinson, Senator John W. Daniel, Senator Culberson, General L. L. Lomax, Major Robert W. Hunter, Hon. John Goode, Dr. H. St. George Tucker, Dr. Geordon, Captain Herbert Bryant, Colonel Thomas A. Smith, Dr. Shirley Carter, Captain W. P. Carter, Major Holmes Conrad, John M. Johnson, Hon. Connalty F. Trigg, Captain Arthur Herbert, W. P. Mason, Samuel W. Spencer, H. Rozier Dulaney, H. B. Littlepage, H. H. Marmaduke.

A detail of eight non-commissioned officers of the Seventh United States Cavalry acted as body bearers. Colonel John T. Callahan, commander, and the members of the Camp of Confederate veterans, constitued a guard of honor for the remains while they were being taken to the Pennsylvania station. The military escort consisted of a squadron of the Seventh Cavalry, a battery of field artillery, and two companies of engineers, U. S. A. Shortly after noon the cortege headed by a band, moved to the railroad station via Pennsylvania avenue. In the column, in addition to the military contingent, were representatives of the civic societies of which General Lee was a member.

At the church services, representing the State of Virginia, and the city of Richmond, were Lieutenant Governor Joseph E. Willard, Colonel Jo. Lane Stern, Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., Mayor Carlton McCarthy, Major E. T. D. Myers and others.

On arrival at the railroad station the casket containing the remains was conveyed with due ceremony to the funeral car in which it was conveyed to Richmond. The escort then was disbanded. The train left for Richmond at 1 P. M.

The body bearers of the Seventh Cavalry remained with the casket until Alexandria was reached. There they were relieved by a detail of an officer and eight enlisted men of the Alexandria Light Infantry. In turn this detachment was relieved at Fredericksburg by a similar detail from the Washington Guards, Company L, Seventieth Virginia Militia.

Arrival of the Remains in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., May 1.—The special train bearing the remains of General Fitzhugh Lee reached Richmond about 5:30 o'clock this afternoon and was met at Elba station at the head of Broad street by an imposing array of State military, Confederate veterans, State and city officials and memorial organizations. The casket containing the body was placed upon a black draped caisson drawn by six black horses at the head of each horse being a member of the Richmond Howitzers in full dress gray uniform, a procession was formed and the march was taken up for the City Hall to the solemn strains of music from an excellent local band. The bells of the city were tolled as the procession moved, flags on the buildings were at half mast and at frequent intervals along the way special emblems of mourning appeared in drapery over store fronts and otherwise. The street was packed with people from the station to the City Hall and the evidence of popular sorrow at the demise of General Lee was marked. The procession was made up of the Richmond companies of the Seventieth Regiment Virginia Volunteers; the Richmond Light Infantry Blues battalion, the Richmond Howitzers, Lee and Pickett Camps of Confederate veterans, the Veteran Cavalry Association, Army of Northern Virginia; the Sons of Confederate veterans and the various ladies' Confederate Memorial Associations of the city.

On arrival at the City Hall, the casket was borne into the rotunda of the building which had been suitably draped for the occasion and placed upon a brier covered with black broadcloth, the band meantime playing "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Company A., of the Seventieth Regiment, went on duty as guard of the remains and will serve through to-night, the duty being taken up to-morrow by the Richmond Blues, who will in turn be relieved by the Richmond Howitzers. The public was soon admitted to look for the last time upon the face of the distinguished dead, and hundreds had already availed themselves of the privilege, when night fell upon the city.

Those who acompanied Mrs. Lee on the train from Washington are the following relatives of hers or General Lee's: Major B. H. Fowle, Captain Daniel M. Lee, Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., Miss Virginia Mason Dorsey, Miss Laura Lee Dorsey, Dr. Robert F. Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Minor, and the following, who were invited by the special committee representing the State Virginia: Major Robert E. L. Mitchie, general staff, U. S. A.; Brigadier General George H. Burton, inspector general, U. S. A.; Major Jefferson R. Kean and Brigadier General Edward M. Hayes, U. S. A., retired. In addition to associate representatives of Virginia and Richmond, there were Lieutenant Governor Willard and Inspector General Jo. Lane Stern, Colonel Robert E. Lee, Jr., Mayor Carlton McCarthy, Major E. T. D. Myers and others.

Governor Montague is confined to his home here by indisposition. Mrs. Ellen Rhea, wife of Lieutenant James Rhea, of the Seventh Cavalry, and Miss Virginia Lee, two of the General's daughters, arrived here last night. Lieutenant Fizhugh Lee, the eldest son is in the Philippines. Mrs. Anne Lee Brown, wife of Lieutenant Brown, of the Seventh Cavalry, and third daughter of General Lee, sailed with her husband Saturday, from San Francisco for the Philippines.

Gen. Lee's body will continue to lie in state to-morrow and possibly Wednesday. The time of the funeral has not yet been definitely fixed. It is understood to depend on the time of arrival of Lieutenant Lee. The exact place of burial in Hodywood cemetery has not yet been decided on either. It will certainly, however, be in the near neighborhood of the resting place of Jefferson Davis. A movement is on foot to have all the military in the State attend the funeral. The Lynchburg and Danville companies have already decided to come. It is learned to-night that Governor Warfield and the Attorney General of Maryland, will be present at the interment.

Governor Montague has issued a proclamation reviewing the distinguished service of General Lee and ordering all State offices to be closed on the day of the funeral.

Cotton and Naval Stores.

The monthly statement of cotton and naval stores is printed in the commercial columns of to-day's Star. From it will be seen that for the first time this season, since September 1st, the receipts of cotton exceed those of a corresponding period last season. Receipts for the month were 7,530 bales against 332 bales same month last season. Receipts of naval stores for the first week of the new crop year show a gain over last season of a few casks of spirits; about 3,000 barrels rosin; a slight falling off in tar and crude. The local cotton market yesterday advanced to steady at 7.25.

Domestic Science Class.

The Eighth Grade of the Union School, which is just completing its third year in the Domestic Science Class, on yesterday gave a dainty little luncheon to twenty-five teachers and members of the school committee of District No. 2. Altogether it was a most charming affair and the guests were delighted. The young ladies all appeared in their attractive costumes of blue and white and the room was tastefully decorated in honor of the occasion. The influence of the Domestic Science Class at Union School is being felt in homes all over the city and the demonstration of what is being done in that department was delightfully impressed upon those who were so fortunate as to be the guests of the Eighth Grade yesterday.

At the Academy.

The Davis-Driscoll Company opened a week of high-class repertoire at the Academy of Music last night presenting "In Convict Stripes" to an audience which taxed the standing room capacity of the theatre. The piece was very cleverly presented and the line of specialties were pronounced excellent. To-night the company presents the delightful four-act comedy drama "Sunset Mines." Popular prices prevail. Seats are on sale at Plummer's. Saturday at matinee the company will present the ever popular "Ten Nights in a Bar Room."

Amicably Adjusted.

The suit brought by the Wilmington Stamp Works and Mr. W. B. Cooper against Mr. T. W. Wood, involving the Seaboard Air Line property, on Front street, between Chestnut and Grace, purchased by Mr. Wood, has been amicably settled by arbitration. There is now no further controversy over the matter and Mr. Wood is in undisputed possession of the property. The matter will be at once withdrawn from the courts.

The Pilgrimage To-day.

Indications point to a large attendance upon the annual pilgrimage of the North Carolina Society of Colonial Dames of America to the ruins of St. Philip's at Old Brunswick to-day. All friends of the work will be welcome. The steamer Wilmington leaves foot of Market street at 10 o'clock. Fare for the round trip is 50 cents for adults and 35 cents for children.

The third annual convention of the Young Peoples' Missionary movement will be held in Asheville from June 23 to July 3. Charles L. Vickery, of New York, yesterday completed arrangements for the entertainment of about 300 delegates. Speakers of national prominence will address the convention each day.

INDEPENDENT TICKETS.

Rumors That Such Will Be In Second and Third Wards.

Rumors, apparently of sufficient authenticity to give the candidates in those wards some concern, if not alarm, were prevalent last night to the effect that in the city election today, independent tickets for aldermen would be urged at the polls in the Second and Third wards. The regular nominees in the Democratic primaries on April 12th are: Second ward, Messrs. Martin O'Brien and P. Q. Moore. Third ward: Messrs. W. H. Yopp and E. F. Johnson. Voters in those wards who desire to ratify the action of the people at the polls on the day of the primary are requested to see that their tickets are without device and read as above. Friends of the candidates nominated are also requested to attend to-day and vote for the nominees.
